Our vision flows from God's heart to ours, compelling us toward a new reality:

“Impact the U. Impact the World.”

*Imagine a world where the love of God has permeated every aspect of society.
What if a community was full of people who cared more for others than for themselves?
In a world where self-interest is the altar, Impact's champions pursue a better way to live.*

We imagine a world where God raises up leaders to restore the brokenness of society. Many of these leaders today are on college campuses across the country. God has placed on the hearts of Impact's champions the desire to reach the 17 million college students on America's 7,690 college campuses, preparing them for the impact God desires to make on the world through them.

We imagine a world where students, living in intimate relationship with God, make an impact on society—as students today and as global leaders in the future. Impact's champions pray for this world and work to realize this world. This world is our God-given vision.

We imagine a world where people are very aware of how critical the college years are in terms of defining the trajectory of one's life. The college context is often host to life-altering decisions (career, family, faith, etc.). Students need the wisdom of God during these years. Impact's champions will lead the way in encouraging the Church to invest significantly in the future of a young generation.

John 15:5 New International Version

“I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.”

Why?
